1. Entries must fall into the broad categories below. Please select the category you feel is most applicable to your entry.

Fantasy Science Fiction Supernatural Horror

They can be fiction or non-fiction, live action or animation.

There is no entry fee for entering the Festival's amateur film competition.

2. Only films completed less than 21 months before each Festival are eligible for that year's award.

3. Foreign material is welcome, but we do request that non-English dialogue is subtitled in English.

4. We can only accept entries in DVD format.

5. Material submitted cannot be returned.

6. Entries should preferably be no more than 25 minutes in duration. Those exceeding 25 minutes may be shortlisted, but the Entrant agrees to an extract only being shown at the final.

7. All entries will be previewed by a selection panel, but only those shortlisted are shown at the Festival.

8. The judging panel typically comprises film professionals and genre journalists.

9. Those whose films have been shortlisted will be notified by email no later than 31 August 2013. If a representative wishes to attend the finals, a single complimentary ticket for the Saturday (one per entry) will be provided by the Festival. We regret we cannot cover travel costs or provide accommodation.

10. The full results will be posted on our website and announced by email to all finalists. Certificates will be issued by post to the winning entrant and runners-up.
